Thanking our Therapy Team

In order to show SWHR's therapy team how much they are appreciated, Ms. Bernadette Roger cooked them a meal of smothered pork chops, rice and gravy, lima beans and hot rolls. Christine Kratzer made the luncheon complete by making a huge salad topped off with her homemade salad dressing.

Team member Jarrod Keller is pictured below enjoying his home-cooked meal. Also in 'the mix' were Joann Richie, Brenda Primeaux, and the chef, Bernadette Roger.

Resident of the Month

Ms. Eleanor Primeaux

Inspirational Quote of the Month

Angel Wish Tree

What if you had the chance to grant someone’s wish? Our residents would love to see one of their wishes come true. If you would like to be part of a resident’s Christmas, please look for our Wish Tree in the main lobby. On the tree will be numbers that represent each resident and their request. Take a tag, and sign your name and phone number by the number (resident) you have chosen. Please bring your wrapped gift to the Activity Department by December 14th no later than 4:00 p.m. Santa will deliver the gifts during our Resident’s Christmas Party. Thank you for helping us make our resident’s wishes come true! If you have any questions about this program, please contact Rose or Joann in the Activity Department.

Ms. Gail Gauthier and Team Red Hats had a very special celebration for our residents with birthdays in September. We played Bingo and ate delicious red velvet cupcakes with cream cheese icing. The ladies celebrating birthdays were seated from left to right: Rena Green, Hazel Villejoin, Mary Vincent, and Kathy Guidry. Also shown in this photo are Brenda Primeaux, Rose Schexnider, Pearl Perkins, Ms. Gauthier, and Heather DeVille.

Hats off to you, Ms. Gail! You always make any of your visits extra special for all of us at SWHR.

Resident Spotlight: Mr. & Mrs. LeBlue

Mr. and Mrs. A.J. LeBlue have been at SWHR for the past ten months.

Mr. LeBlue was born to parents Leon and Dolly, and grew up with four siblings in Evangeline. Mrs. Virgie was born in Crosby, Mississippi to parents Otis and Fayette Jackson and had four brothers and sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. LeBlue worked together for forty years as owners of LeBlue's Gun Shop. Mr. A.J. was a gunsmith and did a wonderful job at his craft, especially being self-taught. Mrs. Virgie had a degree in business, so she did excellent work with keeping up with all things accountable for their shop.

Mr. A.J. and Mrs. Virgie have two children who they adore named Dale and Becky. They also have five awesome grandchildren, eight energetic great-grandchildren, and they have two more sweet grandbabies on the way. The whole family comes to see them quite often since they all live fairly close. Becky and her husband come at least once a day, so one could say they have a beautiful support system.

Mr. and Mrs. LeBlue were avid hunters and fishermen. They shared the love of the outdoors by spending their weekends either in their boat or at one of their deer or turkey stands. More than once, Mrs. Virgie actually out-hunted and sometimes even out-fished Mr. LeBlue. He pretended that he didn't care for that too much, however, the whole time he was quite proud of the love of his life.

Their very favorite thing to do at SWHR is what they've done all their life....to go and be outdoors. Whether it's just sitting there being with one another, or visiting with the many friends they both have come to know or already knew before they arrived here. They also enjoy Bingo and go to church whenever possible. One of the reasons Mr. and Mrs. LeBlue get along as ideal roommates is because they've been married for sixty-four glorious years.

Mr. and Mrs. LeBlue, you are both a pleasure to be around and have made SWHR a better place to be. The love you two have for each other is absolutely inspiring!
