September 2017

Rainy Day Blues? Not at Southwind!

We are no strangers to rain in South Louisiana, and it seems the summer months always bring more rain than others. On one of our recent rainy days, the Beach Boys Greatest Hits blared on the stereo and SWHR's residents spent their time either decorating colorful plates or creating types of animal shapes. The items used for this summer activity were seashells, six inch plates, glue, cardstock, and a variety of recycled cards for picture cut-out ideas. The weather may have been ugly, but the designs our residents made were beautiful!

Inspirational Quote of the Month

If you don't stick to your values when they are being tested, they're not values: they're hobbies.

- Jon Stewart

All Wrapped Up in HR Fun

Team Member Specialists, including our own helpful and hardworking Christie Ashby, from Elder Outreach's Louisiana and Arkansas locations came together for a conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, last month. Even the most consummate professional just can't help themselves when they get together for a little education, a little training, and a little fun!

Wining & Dining with Chef Reynold

A very enlightened man once said "one of the nicest things about life is the way we must regularly stop whatever it is we are doing and devote our attention to eating" and if we are really fortunate, we get to indulge our appetites in the company of others. Residents did just that last month when Corporate Chef Reynold Landry treated Southwind to a Wine and Appetizer Pairing event. Thank you, Chef Reynold, Michele Veillon, Karen Tabiolo, Brenda Primeaux, and Carol Trahan, who helped make this event one to remember!
