A Veteran's Day Celebration

Last month SWHR had the honor of celebrating numerous veterans who have served in the armed forces. We had a lovely program devoted to these very courageous men. We paired with our partners in healthcare, Southwind Senior Living Suites and Encore Healthcare and Rehabilitation, to recognize these hometown heroes. We had a wonderful audience of family members and friends who seemed touched by all of the accomplishments of these great servicemen. SWHR would like to thank The Crowley American Legion, the VFW, and the Fire Department for attending, as well as the awesome music of the Bayou Blend Chorus, who entertained us with an array of Patriotic Songs. After our program, we had a variety of sandwiches, chips, cookies, and drinks to enjoy. Thank you, Veterans!

Resident of the Month

A Spooktacular Halloween

We had a frighteningly great time this Halloween at Southwind! We hosted visitors aged four and five years old from three different schools in Acadia Parish who came by SWHR Halloween morning. They put on a performance of singing and skits, which our residents adored. Afterwards, the talented little ghouls and boys got a treat bag to take with them as a token of our gratitude for stopping by!

Don't Worry, Be Thankful

Southwind residents celebrated Thanksgiving during a wonderful luncheon with their loved ones last month. Hats off to our awesome Dietary Department for preparing a delicious menu which consisted of baked turkey, cornbread dressing, green bean casserole, potato salad, dinner rolls, iced tea, pumpkin pie and pecan pie. When we count our blessings, we count our wonderful residents and their families twice!

Inspirational Quote

Our task must be to widen our circle of compassion, to embrace all living creatures and the whole of nature in its beauty.
