TAKING IT TO THE LIMIT

When Mr. Winfred LeBlanc and Mrs. Lula Cormier represented SWHR at the Cade Community Center Regional King and Queen competition, Mrs. Lulu was the only one who seemed surprised that she was chosen Queen. Mr. Leblanc also did a wonderful job, as he came in First Runner Up for King. Both of our loved ones represented SWHR so well in this exciting event which took place in St. Martinville, LA.

Mrs. Cormier and Mr. LeBlanc both did an excellent job in portraying the love, admiration, and class you have for your "home away from home!" Both of you not only looked elegant, but all could easily see your enthusiasm and pride as you took on this competition!

OUR VOLUNTEERS ARE BEYOND VALUABLE

Recently, SWHR honored our many volunteers with a beautiful luncheon of macaroni salad, green salad, rolls and iced tea.

They also had an assortment of cheesecake to satisfy their sweet tooth. Over twenty people attended this event honoring our dedicated and lovable volunteers who come consistently to help our residents with anything including playing games, working with arts & crafts, Bible study, mass, singing and simply spending quality time with our loved ones. Everyone had a wonderful time eating and visiting with one another. At the end of the social, everyone received an awesome t-shirt which stated how special their time is to all of us. Thank you!

CELEBRATING NATIONAL NURSING HOME WEEK

Our week was full of activities but, even better, it was full of fun! On Monday we opened with a huge balloon lift-off and welcomed a very special guest, Mr. Greg Jones, mayor of Crowley. That afternoon, we hosted Mr. Ray Lee Menard and his French band where the residents enjoyed a variety of songs they recognized. On Tuesday, we had a visit from 'A Zoo on Wheels,' and that afternoon played Zoo Jingo with great prizes for the winners. A little later, Mr. Blaine Faulk and Robbie Barousse came by with homemade jambalaya which the residents loved. We also enjoyed a beautifully decorated cake compliments of Ms. Johanna Sittig. After mass on Wednesday, our loved ones were treated to some of the most beautiful and well-seasoned crawfish, corn, and potatoes which were cooked by Mr. Cory, Brett, and John. While the guys worked on this scrumptious meal, Mr. Rusty Louviere entertained everyone with a variety of music. On Thursday, after having donuts and coffee, we had a very special magician, Mr. Barry Premeaux, perform. After lunch and a bit of rest, we had a Bingo Extravaganza with wonderful prizes up for grabs. Banana splits were then served before everyone headed to their rooms for another quick "power-nap." Mr. Rick Hessler, a balloon artist, came in on Friday and blew the residents away by making any type of balloon-shaped object they requested. He made things such as flowers, guitars, a fishing pole with a fish attached, and a variety of animals. Our loved ones were simply amazed with his artistry! Mr. Geno Delafosse and the French Rockin' Boogie closed out our week with a wonderful performance as usual. He really knows the music that our residents love to move to, and he even took the time after playing to sign autographs and take pictures with anyone who requested it. Thank you to everyone who helped make this week so special!
