A VETERANS DAY TRIBUTE

"When America had a real need,
the brave ones raised a hand.
Nothing was going to stop them;
they would proudly take a stand.

They left their friends and loved ones;
they gave up a normal life.
To serve the Good Old USA,
they plowed into the strife.

They fought for freedom and for peace;
they defended our shores.
Some lost their very precious life
in long and brutal wars.

We salute every one of them,
the noble and the brave.
They are a cut above the rest;
you'd better believe, they are truly
our country's best!"

THANKSGIVING TREATS

Southwind residents recently made turkey cupcakes with the help of Notre Dame Agriculture students. The cupcakes were decorated with peanut butter cookies, icing, and candy corn. Thank you, students, for visiting with our residents!

MEMORIES, BLESSINGS, AND MILES OF SMILES

It's days like this that one realizes what is truly important in life. During Southwind Nursing and Rehabilitation's Thanksgiving luncheon last month, our halls were filled with tons of laughter, great food, but most of all, miles of smiles. The main thing that brought these amazing sights to light was not the beautifully decorated dining rooms, neither was it the scrumptious and bountiful plates of food...but it was SO obvious that it was the presence of family and friends that made our residents' day. So if you joined us to dine with your loved one, thanks a bunch!

The meal, compliments of our very own dietary team, consisted of turkey, ham, cornbread dressing, green beans, cranberry sauce, pocket rolls, and iced tea. The choice of desserts was pumpkin or pecan pie. This event was surely about the love in our residents' hearts, and not just about the great food that was offered. Thank you to everyone who made this gathering a most special occasion for all of us.
